

Abi Shepherd

I initially trained as a pre-school leader and moved to a primary school when my youngest child started school. I have held many roles in school including TA and HLTA whilst I completed my degree and teacher training. I moved to AJS in September 2013 when I was appointed as Phase Leader Y2/Y3 and changed to Phase Leader EY/Y1 last year. I was appointed as a staff Governor in April 2015. Since the beginning of September this year I have taken up the post of Assistant head – Inclusion having completed the SEN Award at Cambridge University. I am married with 2 children, both currently at University.
