There is a brand new performing arts club coming to Whittlesey. Bridge In The Sky, A local film company ran by Austin Staton aka Mr Reid and Miss Gregory. (Park Lane Staff)

On the back of their success in creating the film, Perennial, this summer, they are now bringing the company to Park Lane School to run a new performing arts club. Mr Reid has taught at some of the top musical theatre and performing art schools across the country, as well as working on productions for companies such as BBC, ITV, SBT, Cadburys and Soap and Glory.

They are offering classes, which cover acting, singing and dancing with the aim to help young people to get into the performing arts industry alongside building confidence, ability and creativity in young people.

The new club will run after school on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays during term time, at 3.15pm to 4.15pm at Park Lane. (For AJS students we normally start around 3.20pm once we've signed everyone in and walked them over.)

Each class is open from year 3 through up to year 6. Any child can come to any session.

Prices are £4.50 for a single class session or £12 for a weekly pass (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday)
